

Preventable or Not-Preventable?

CMV (Commercial Motor Vehicle) accidents are classified as Preventable or Not-Preventable. Below is a list of Not-Preventable CMV crashes. If you have an incident that is not listed below, you are more than likely responsible.

1. When the commercial motor vehicle (CMV) was struck by a motorist driving under the influence (or related offense)
2. When the CMV was struck by a motorist driving the wrong direction
3. When the CMV was struck in the rear
4. When the CMV was struck while it was legally stopped or parked, including when the vehicle was unattended
5. When the CMV struck an individual committing or attempting to commit suicide by stepping or driving in front of the CMV
6. When the CMV sustained disabling damage after striking an animal in the roadway
7. When the crash was the result of an infrastructure failure, falling trees, rocks, or other debris;
8. When the CMV was struck by cargo or equipment from another vehicle

Buddy L. celebrates 35 years at Bobby Lehmann Trucking the 15th of this month! Wow!

A child goes to his truck driving dad and asks, "Dad, how do parents think of names for their children?" The father answers, "Well, son, it's an old family tradition. The night before the mother gives birth, the father goes into the woods and camps for the night. When he wakes the following morning, the first thing he sees is what he names his child, which is why your sister is named Soaring Eagle. Why do you ask, Bear Poop?"

Jose was in the fertilized egg business. He had a ton of young chickens and only ten roosters to take care of them. He kept records and any rooster not performing went into the soup pot and was replaced. This took time, so he got some tiny bells and tied them to his roosters. Each bell sounded different, so he could tell which rooster was performing.

Jose's favorite rooster, Butch, was a very fine rooster but, this morning he noticed Butch's bell hadn't rung at all! When he went to investigate, he saw the other roosters were busy chasing chickens, bells-a-ringing, but the chickens hearing the roosters coming, would run for cover.

To Jose's amazement, Butch had his bell in his beak, so it couldn't ring. He'd sneak up on a chicken, do his job, and walk on to the next one.

Jose was so proud of Butch, he entered him in County Fair and he became an overnight sensation among the judges. The result was the judges not only awarded Butch the "No Bell Piece Prize" they also awarded him the "Pulletsurprise" as well.

Clearly Butch was a politician in the making. Who else but a politician could figure out how to win two of the most coveted awards on our planet by being the best at sneaking up on the unsuspecting populace and screwing them when they weren't paying attention?

Next month we vote. Be careful how you vote, you can't always hear the bells.

Halloween is Oct 31. Be on the lookout for 'Trick or Treaters'. Kids are more than twice as likely to be hit by a car on Halloween than any other day of the year. Please, be safe.

Beware the 'Aggressive Driver!'

"Anyone who operates a motor vehicle in a selfish, bold or pushy manner – without regard for the rights or safety of the other users of our streets and highways." Who would this be? This is the 'aggressive driver'.

Aggressive drivers create an unsafe driving environment through their inconsiderate, self-centered driving habits and are responsible for hundreds of deaths and thousands of injuries every year. Texas, and other states are targeting these drivers through education and enforcement.

Our Mission Statement: Bobby Lehmann, Inc. is a specialized trucking company dedicated to achieving complete customer satisfaction through the efforts of talented people, technology, equipment, and the philosophy; we are the best.

Every night before Bradley and his wife went to sleep, his wife would read while Bradley watched fishing shows on TV. One night while watching the fishing channel, Bradley got kind of tired of watching fishing and flipped the channel over to X rated movies. The misses noticed, but didn't say anything. Bradley would watch the X rated for a little while and flip the TV back over to the fishing channel. Then he'd watch fishing for a little while and then flip back to X rated. This went on for about 30 min or so. His wife finally got tired of Bradley flipping the TV channels and told Bradley. "You might as well leave it on the X rated show. You already know how to fish pretty good".

Safety First, Because Injuries Last!

Juan, an old boy in the trucking business, was doing some honey do projects one Saturday morning and found he needed a new hinge for a bathroom cabinet door.

Rather than go himself he sent his wife Rosita to the Home Depot.

While Rosita was waiting to be helped she saw a beautiful gold plated bathroom faucet. She asked Jose, the Home Depot guy, how much it was and told her that it was genuine gold plated and was only $300.00.

"My goodness, that sure is a lot of money," she exclaimed. Then she described to Jose the hinge she needed.

Jose went to the back room to look for the hinge. Pretty soon Rosita could hear Jose holler from the back room,

"Miss Rosita, you wan 'a screw for that hinge?"

Rosita replied, "No, but I will for the faucet!"
